ANNUAL PLAY -“Phool & Fools”

Committing suicide these days, has become as fashionable for the youngsters as to fall in love. There are situations in which the youngsters take a stern step and for them it is a ‘trend’ to do so. Such situations that force the youngsters to take stern decisions collapsing themselves into other problems are shown by the students of IIS (Deemed to be University) Theatrical Society in their satirical Annual Play “Phool and Fools” staged on 29th September 2018 at India International School Auditorium.

The play began with introducing two narrators, who in a very interesting way narrates the fantasy story. The narrator while telling the story to the audience, introduces the lead character of the story Rajkumar Astabhan and his best friend Mufatlal. As the play moves on, it shares a serious conversation between the prince and his friend. After failing in BA examinations three times, the upset prince decides to commit suicide and asks his friend Mufatlal to do all the preparations for his suicidal event. The prince asks Mufatlal to search for all the ideas of committing suicide and finally he agrees upon jumping off a cliff.

At the cliff, the prince meets Rani Nagfani, who was also there to commit suicide as she is heartbroken and failed in love relationships six times. As the conversation between them begins, they fall for each other and decide to get married. The comical situations take place after their decision, formed rest of the story of the play. The play is based on “Nagfani Ki Kahani” penned by noted writer Harishankar Parsai highlighted the awful situation of the society in a hearted way. Described through situational comedy, the play was relished by the audience.

Vivek Kumar has directed the play while Hardik Shah has designed it. According to the director, the play is based on Red Nose Clowning Form and the philosophy behind this form is finding something in nothing and conveying sense out of non-sense. This play was an outcome of 38 days of theatre workshop in which 43 artists were taught the spontaneity and the element of surprise in life as 43 different souls were transformed into energy on the stage.

Mr. Vivek is an alumnus of National School of Drama and has been trained in Red Nose Clowning under Ashwath Bhatt. He has performed in more than 500 shows of wizcraft's production "JHUMROO" at Kingdom of Dreams. Hardik Shah is a founder of Five Senses Theatre Group. Presently, he is directing a Web Series for Amazon Prime. Theatre Co-ordinator Dr. Aditi R. Khandelwal has contributed in giving the play a final shape.

The defining quality of this entertaining show was its cast. The comic timing of Urvashi Bidawat as Astabhan and Divya Bhomia as Mufatlal is simply amazing. Priyal Mathur as Nagfani was very convincing in both the situations once when she was heartbroken and later when she fell in deep love with Astabhan. Mansi Agarwal and Surabhi Agawal tickled the funny bones of audience who played the role of Poet and Singer respectively while trying to pacify grieving Astabhan.

Bandit Queen fame National Award Winner Theatre, Film and Television Actor Ms. Seema Biswas was the chief guest on the occasion. Ms. Biswas applauded the artists' performance in the play and persuaded them to pursue acting as she had seen a great potential in them.

Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice-Chancellor of the university has congratulated everyone associated with this play for putting their heart and soul into it to make it successful. He also distributed participation certificates to the students.

Thus, Theatre is the perfect outlet for people to be original and to express themselves. For many people, theatre also gives a purpose for life. Human beings naturally want to express themselves, and theatre is the most expressive art form. "This is why theatre is important: because it presents a reflective vision of a life that is vastly more fascinating and alluring than the one in which we're stuck." - Lemoney Snicket.

The IISU Theatrical Society's Orientation- 2018 was organized on 28th July 2018 by the IISU Theatrical Society in Srijan Hall. The Orientation Programme saw an enthusiastic participation of the students who were all geared up to attend the same. The programme commenced with the introduction to the IISU Theatrical Society by Dr. Aditi R. Khandelwal via a PowerPoint Presentation in which she introduced the students to various coordinators and members of the society. The students were also briefed about the various events and achievements of the society, along with the introduction to the Annual Theatre Workshop and the Career Oriented Skill Developing (COSD) Course in Theatre.

After the presentation, the students heads off of the society presented a comic-skit titled "Ma ka Para" which depicted the story of an underworld mafia don, who feared no one but only his mother. The skit made everyone laugh there. The skit was followed by an award winning monologue performed by one of the COSD student. In order to break the ice and lighten up the mood, few fun-filled theatre activities were also conducted, that not only allowed the students to interact with everyone but also tested their awareness and presence of mind. The orientation was concluded with a note of thanks by the Coordinator of the Theatrical Society.

NUKKAD NATAK ON ORGAN DONATION

Date: 7th August 2018

Time: 12:00 PM

Venue: Back lawns, IISU Jaipur

No. of students participated : 13

The IISU Theatrical society students performed a Nukkad Natak on the topic "ORGAN DONATION" on 7th August 2018 in the university lawns, in order to spread the awareness about the same.

This was the first Nukkad Natak of this academic year and it saw an enthusiastic participation of the students of the theatrical society and fresher's as well. A large number of audiences were geared up to attend the same. The Nukkad Natak commenced with calling the audience with an enthusiastic call song following the scenes which depicts the importance and need of organ donation. It also consisted of some fun filled scenes which made the audience laugh but on contrary students also got to know about the organ donation card and how much importance it holds. Some mind boggling facts about organ donation were included which the audience was not aware about. The Nukkad Natak was whole-heartedly cheered up by the audience. When asked about the feedback, audience response was amazing. It turned out to be a motivating and successful event.

GRAND RUN - ANNUAL PLAY 'PHOOL AND FOOLS'

Date : 25th September, 2018

Time: 6:00 P M

Venue: IIS ,Shipa Path Jaipur

No. of students participated : 53

Annual Play 'Phool and Fools' was showcased for the students of IIS Hostel girls on 25th September, 2018, at 6 PM.

The IISU Theatrical Society culminated into a play titled "Phool and Fools" directed by Vivek Kumar and designed by Hardik Shah. "Phool and Fools" is an adaptation of Harishankar Parsai's satire "Naagfani ki Kahani", that comments on the society in a very simple and extremely funny manner. The story revolves around two lovers, Astabhan and Nagfani, who decide to commit suicide because of academic failure and heartbreak, but instead fall in love with each other at the suicide point. However, both the lovers have to face the wrath of family rejection and the pain of separation. Not only this, but using satire as a device, the play commented on various flaws of the society like the education system, government, impulsive youth, etc. The play was highly appreciated by the IIS Hostel girl's students, who enjoyed the performance, punches, satire and the element of clowning thoroughly.

.We the people of India have always had our views , opinions , and judgements about everything we see , hear , or do, but is creating a definition for " smile" correct?? Judging people as depressed , mental , character less , and less of a man on the basis of the way they laugh is not correct. The play spoke that the thing we need to understand is that we don't need a definition of " perfect laughter" , instead we need to change our mindsets . As one of the lines of the play say , by accepting , respecting , understanding ,communicating , being kind , being just towards others will eventually solve all our problems and issues. The play talks about the importance of " smile" in one's life and how it can change one's perspective towards different problems and give a better positive solution.

On the auspicious occasion of International Women's Day, on 08 March 2019, The IISU Theatrical Society performed a skit "HA KHOOBSURAT HU MEIN, KHUSH HU KI EK AURAT HU MEIN" to appreciate and celebrate womanhood. The skit resisted all the taboos society had regarding women and made them realize that they are "a form of art".

The skit had several scenes appreciating every woman in every field, even if it's a house wife staying at home and doing all the chores, while other members of the family go out to their respective jobs. It doesn't seem much because we barely notice her work. Every woman is worthy of this respect, even prostitutes. They are just like us and it's their job and it's their choice. Humanity teaches us to respect everyone, it teaches us that every being is equal. The skit was witnessed by H'norable Registrar Dr. Rakhi Gupta, Professors, teachers and the students of the university and was highly appreciated by the audience.

NUKKAD NATAK 'KASTURI HIRAN'

Time:12:00PM

Venue: LMNIIT, Jaipur,

No. of students Participated : 12

Organizing Institute: LMNIIT, Jaipur

The students of the theatrical society of the IIS University participated in the annual youth fest organized by the LNM institute of information technology 'Vivacity 2019'. The street play named "KASTURI HIRAN" was performed by the students of The IIS University on 1st February 2019.

About the play-

Acknowledgment of our country is something which is vanishing day by day from most of the people. We as the aboriginal residents of India criticize the country rather acknowledging what all it gave to us and adoring the beautiful traditional culture of our country. KASTURI HIRAN is a play that was made for the purpose to give people a reality check about what actually India is. The students of the IIS-University were provided with the golden opportunity to perform at Jairangam'18- Jaipur's theatre festival. Performing on such a big platform and representing the college is a great deal of responsibility and the students justified the trust invested in them. The title of the street play was Hahaha No! and it was performed at JKK - Jawahar Kala Kendra on 17th of December 2018 at 3:35 p.m. The street play was highly appreciated by the audience and was successful in depicting its message. The message of the play was how people have forgotten to smile and if they will smile half of their problems will be solved automatically. It focused on telling the importance of vibes of positivity and that there is no definition of perfect laughter.

Haha No - mere pass hasneka time nahi h! taught a valuable lesson and gave the idea that the true joy is not in materialistic things but in things like love of fellow people. The students chose to wear the color red because the color not only represents love but also attention. The colorful hand imprints on the faces of the performers depicted the various colors of life. Performing at Jairangam was an enlightening experience and the students of the IIS-University look forward to more such experiences.

The students of the theatrical society of the IIS University participated in the annual youth fest "COSMOS" the event was held on 8 the January 2019. The street play named "HA HA HA NO!!" was performed by the students of the theatrical society of the university.

About the play-

We the people of India have always had our views , opinions , and judgements about everything we see , hear , or do, but is creating a definition for " smile" correct?? Judging people as depressed , mental , character less , and less of a man on the basis of the way they laugh is not correct. The play spoke that the thing we need to understand is that we don't need a definition of " perfect laughter" , instead we need to change our mindsets .As one of the lines of the play say , by accepting , respecting , understanding ,communicating , being kind , being just towards others will eventually solve all our problems and issues.The play talks about the importance of " smile" in one's life and how it can change one's perspective towards different problems and give a better positive solution. The HA HA HA HA NO!! Team stood third in the competition. Lastly the event was sum up by the encouraging words of the esteemed judges Lohit pareek and Ms. Sareeka pareek.

4th October 2018: Film Screening

On day 4, a film screening was organized for students of faculty of science in A.V. Hall of University. A total of 130 students along with Dean, Faculty of Sciences and faculty members of Environmental Sciences watched Delhi Safari- a movie directed by Nikkhil Advani. Delhi Safari is the story of a journey undertaken by a leopard cub, his mother, a monkey, a bear and a parrot when the forest they live in is on the verge of destruction. Builders have encroached upon their forest and the animals decide to go to Delhi and protest in front of the parliament and ask the parliament some very simple yet pertinent questions they were thinking of- why has man become the most dangerous animal? The film is all about the consequences arising from deforestation and destruction of natural habitats of wild animals. Due to urbanization, industrialization and growing population needs, forest area in the country has got depleted at an alarming rate and therefore disturbing habitat for wild animals which plays an important role in balancing the ecosystem. The film screening proved to be beneficial to the students and creates awareness regarding the ill effects of destruction of wildlife habitats.

National Handloom Day: Flaunt the warp and weft

Date: 07.08.2018

Venue: Clothing Lab

Students: Fashion & Textiles

7th August, a day in memory of the 'Swadeshi Movement' of 1905, India weaves in to celebrate National Handloom Day as the country has been a hub of organic looms that serve as an employment scheme to the artisans and craftsmen who put in hours of labor to provide the finest of couture as an end product. Handlooms aren't just important for aesthetic and cultural reasons, they're also integral to political and diplomatic engagements, as they are symbols of a nation's identity, culture and inclusive development. In the words of a French traveler, Tavernier, the Ambassador of the Shah of Persia (CE 1628–1641), on his return from India, presented his master with a "coconut shell, set with jewels, containing a Muslin turban thirty yards in length, so exquisitely fine that it could scarcely be felt by the touch."

Celebrating such days brings awareness about our rich textiles and brings pride as a fashion designer to be able to use such looms and be a part of this movement. The awareness of our handloom in the country helps in the employment of our great artisans and weavers who got lost in the progress of the fashion industry in the past decade with the growth of mass production brands.

On 7th August 2018, Department of Fashion & Textiles celebrated National Handloom Day by urging students of the department to wear Handloom products as part of the #IWEARHANDLOOM campaign. Students of the department displayed products and delivered talks to young fashionistas to show millennials that handloom isn't just for the oldies.

Students emphasized that in this age of fast fashion, aesthetics seems to have lost out. With mass manufacturing, no trend stays longer than a season and there are hardly any emotions attached to what one wears and how we present ourselves. Somewhere, with this thought, wearing handloom calms this roadrunner lifestyle, and also makes one feel proud and unique. It made them feel that in some way they are contributing to revivalism.

What is required is for Indian textiles to be adopted into contemporary wear, so that younger generations start understanding and supporting these fabrics, a goal which might not be impossible to achieve given the large number of brands which are today involved in the revival of these indigenous weaves.

Report of the Activities organized by Reader's Activity Club

Readers' Club Activity - *Nanette

The Readers' Club organized an insightful discussion on Hannah Gadsby's Netflix special show, Nanette on 27 August 2018. The one-hour long discussion cumulated some strong views on Homophobia as a societal construct being imposed on individuals from their formative socialisation. It placed emphasis on the gender not-normals' struggle to seek acceptance in a dominantly heterosexual society. The group, as a whole, agreed that a potential solution to this problem of discrimination is to offer acceptance and empathy to the not-normal community, rather than sympathize with them as victims. The students also voiced their opinions on the false association of creativity with mental suffering and the misconceptions pertaining to mental health. There were diverse viewpoints on the practice of romanticizing mental illnesses along with the concurrent need to spread awareness about the same in terms of medication and aid. The discourse ended on the idea of accepting one's own identity in order to gain acceptance on a societal level. The entire discussion was contextualised around Nanette, a 30-minute clip of which was circulated amongst the students as preparation for the event.

Movie Screening - *The French Lieutenant's Woman

The Department of English organized a Movie Screening of The French Lieutenant's Woman for the M.A.(Final) students on 8 September 2018. ## VIVIDHA 2019

The 7th Media Fest of the IIS University - Vividha was organised by the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication on 7th & 8th January 2019 in the university campus.

The two day event commenced with the inaugural ceremony which was graced by the presence of the Chief Guest Shri Jagdish Upasane.

The inaugural ceremony began with the college prayer and lighting of the lamp followed by the Welcome Address from the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of IIS University, Dr. Ashok Gupta, thanking Shri Upasane for gracing the event with his presence.

A journalist with over 40 years' experience in the field of journalism, Shri Upasane spoke on a wide variety of topics, ranging from the importance of cultivating news sense through the reading of newspapers to explaining how journalism serves the public interest and therefore carries a social responsibility. Despite how journalism has changed over the last 40 years and how its language as a medium has evolved, journalists, he said, remain the gatekeepers of the readers, thus fulfilling the purpose of journalism. Citing the example of our own alumnus, Palki Sharma, he emphasized the kind of example she has set in the media for all the young journalists being trained in the ranks of our University. Around 149 students participated in the various events of Vividha.

He concluded his speech by motivating the students towards skill development and to take up the responsibility of the media to raise for accountability in the public interest and to undertake fair journalism without any fear while keeping the morals of journalism in mind.

The college newsletter - Youth Speak - was also released by the Chief Guest on this occasion after which he was presented with a memento by our Registrar, Dr. Raakhi Gupta.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by the HOD of Journalism and Mass Communication, Dr. Garima Shrivastva. The objective of Vividha is to make students of Journalism and Mass Communication understand the various aspects of Journalism and Mass Communication. The main objective of Vividha is to make students learn teamwork, showcase talent and coordinate all the activities of the media fest. Vividha proved to be very fruitful as the students of journalism and Mass Communication coordinated all the events of vividha. The students actively participated in all the events.

Silence is the real definition of dance: Pandit Deepak Maharaj Experiments destroy the purity of Kathak: Pandit Deepak Maharaj

16th January 2019: Jaipur: Noise of words is merely a Tamasha, silence is the real definition of dance (Shabdon ka shor to sirf Tamasha Hai, Maun hi Nritya ki Paribhasha hai). This is how Pandit Deepak Maharaj, son of Pandi Birju Maharaj defined 'Kathak' to the student audience on the occasion of SPIC MACAY program organized by the IIS (Deemed to be University) at International School of Informatics and Management (IIIM), Technical Campus on Wednesday.

He further said that his father and Guru Pandit Birju Maharaj has actually raised the bar of Kathak as a dance form. Pandit Deepak Maharaj showed resentment towards experiments and remix being done in the name of Kathak. According to him, such things destroy the purity of the dance form. He says that Kathak should be performed in the proper outfit to maintain its essence and originality. He shared his memories with his father as how he used to keep a check on a scene or the costume to be worn by the actress before taking up any bollywood project. This is the reason why iconic songs Dhai Sham Rok Lai from

Devdas and Mohe Rang Do Lal from Bajirao Mastani are still fresh in the minds of audiences.

Pandit Deepak Maharaj was accompanied by Shree Pranshu Chaturlal on Tabla, Janaab Gulab Vaaris on Vocal & Harmonium and Janaab Muhammad Ayub on Sarangi.

He presented various forms of Kathak like Tukda, 16 circles, Tihais etc with great ease and left everyone spellbound. His expressions spoke thousand words when he narrated Makhan Chori story through this popular dance form.

The session ended with a traditional jugal-bandi which was enjoyed by

Teacher coordinator: Ms. Poorvi Agarwal

A workshop was conducted for students of B.Sc. Fashion Design- Sem II and M.A./M.Com./M.Sc. Fashion Design –Sem II students, aiming to bring clarity and motivations towards new ways of enhancing creativity and give a higher arena for careers. The workshop begins with a brief introduction by Ms. Puja Arya, fashion design faculty and renowned fashion designer, Pearl Academy, Jaipur.

She gave a glimpse of her fashion journey, as starting from NIFT Delhi as a student, to dealing with designers abroad and participating in eminent fashion shows across the country and more.

In the interactive session, students were curious to know about her fervor and how she created unique identity, and how to embark on journey of success.

Moreover, she emphasized on the importance of exposing student to different cultures worldwide. She told students, how Indian designers, like Mr. Gaurav

Gupta, alumnus of Central Saint Martin's College, London are changing the definition of fashion in the country.

Mr. Santosh Anand , faculty of fashion, Pearl Academy,Jaipur presented some wonderful yet easy to follow ways to bring the very needed creativity in the work. A fun activity was performed where students has to drape fabrics on the mannequin in unconventional way. Mr. Anand, himself showed students how they can play with the fabric and enjoy the process, rather just copying down from any other place.

Later, he interacted with each group individually on what was missing in the created looks and how they can experiment more and improve.

Fashion Show-‘CREATIONS 19’ Department: Fashion & Textiles

Venue: IIS Back Lawns

Department of Fashion & Textiles had organised its 10th Annual Fashion Show “CREATIONS-2019” on 25th January 2019 at IIS University Campus, Jaipur. The fashion show was an initiative to provide a platform for the emerging designers and models.

The Special Invitee for the event was Ms. Aditi Hundia, Miss Supranational India 2018. She is also Alumni of IIS School, Jaipur.

The panel of judges for the show were:

1. Ms. Anupama Bose, Fashion Designer, Jaipur
2. Ms. Suchi VC, Fashion Designer, Jaipur

In all there were 34 designers, 41 models and 5 dancers. The choreography and music was given by Mr. David. In order to groom the girls, 15 days training for modelling was conducted. Each round was mentored by the faculty of the Department of Fashion & Textiles. For the final show, the colour board, mood board, theme board, story board, swatch board and working pictures of how they developed the entire collection were displayed through power point presentation by the designers for their respective rounds.

A total of 10 rounds were showcased in the show, which were created by the students of Department of Fashion & Textiles.

The themes of the rounds were as follows:

- Epoch Vogue

Aesthetic fusion of modish designs and techniques befitting a bride’s trousseau, shararas, gararas, lehngas, skirts and jackets, in flowing georgette, rich cotton, organza and sheer net, in shades of pink, grey and green, are enriched with ‘Lucknow Chikankari’. Reminiscent of a time of regal fashion, the ensembles blend vintage Lucknowi art with contemporary high fashion to revive the romance of a bygone era.

- Downtown Chic

Old fabrics come in a whole new avatar using the effect of marbling technique. Beautified in tinted rose, indigo blue, marble white and golden yellow, in pure crepe, taffeta, silk and glazed cotton, this collection of ‘Loud Street Fashion’ draws inspiration from the four major cities of Jaipur, Jodhpur, Jaisalmer and Udaipur.

- Pastel Patina

- Desi Firangi

An alluring blend of contemporary and traditional palettes offers a casual look to the apparel on show. Sartorial twists of indo-western silhouettes, anarkali cuts, dhoti-trousers and skirts, in electrifying hues and gota work, bestow a desi firangi touch to give us the best of both the sensibilities.

- Origami Terrestrial

This winsome collection gets its inspiration from the 'garden'. Tender grace and garlanded in vibrant floral shades using straight fit silhouettes in dresses made with diverse fabrics and embellished with the origami technique. Net hats, fine laces and floral trinkets add to the nymph-like look whilst recreating earthly paradise.

Desi Firangi

Origami Terrestrial

- Tutelary Vigour

An ode to the strength and ethos of womanhood, the attires are inspired by the Hindu Goddesses Saraswati, Durga, Kali and Laxmi. Feminine qualities get transformed into classy indo-western embroidered gowns and dhoti-trousers in the symbolic shades of black, red, yellow and pink, paired with decorous accessories, defining the complete woman-an amalgamation of valour and tender grace.

- Ritzy Earthbound

Promoting jute to make it commercially viable, digitally-printed, asymmetrical ‘street wear’ in stripes as well as voluminous jackets in shades of rose pink, olive green and amber brown, lend a snazzy look to this exquisite collection.

- Numen Myth

Invoking the Dragon God and firing up the creative imagination by drawing from temple architecture and monk’s attires to suggest a coalescence of Tibetan culture and religion, this eclectic collection uses emblematic shades of red, blue and orange festooned with well-crafted dragon motifs in golden cord hand-embroidery. A rich alloy of indo–western clothing is an embodiment of the spiritual fashionista.

- Jazzy Radiance

The queen movement is the reason behind this edgy collection, with its digitally printed, capacious 'street wear style' dresses in abstract motifs. Enfolded in ravishing red, over-the-top orange, young yellow, gorgeous green, boisterous blue and lovely lilac, the ensembles strongly announce each one's right to participate in the celebration of life. A profound notion is re-styled through prolific art as creativity to give way to the designers' dream.

- Limpid Aqua

Drawing inspiration from various forms of water, digital printed collection of trendy attires in silks, crepes and cottons in tints and shades of white, blue and brown, prettified with frills, cuts and a flouncy look represent the diverse aqua bodies and narrate a tale of both the meaningfulness and the meaninglessness of life, with and without water, thus paraphrasing a poesy of feminine grace.

अभिव्यक्ति

Ek prayaas...

Picasso believed that art washed away from the soul, the dust of everyday life. It is indeed true that art has the power to reduce the monotony of our technology-driven lives. In part of our constant endeavour to promote art and aesthetics, we are proud to present before you the 19th edition of "Abhivyakti- Ek Prayaas". This annual exhibition is a creative attempt of the students of the Department of Visual Arts to capture, in multifarious mediums, the ever-evolving psyche of the individual, while at the same time attempting to understand the society that we live in. The art works of these students are glimpses of their souls, each unique and beautiful, enriched by their lived experience and fanciful imagination. Each creation narrates a story to be read by discerning eye. I congratulate all the participants for their indefatigable efforts to put together this exhibition and wish it the very best.

Dr. Ashok Gupta
Vice Chancellor

The Annual Art Exhibition of the Department of Visual Arts- "Abhivyakti-Ek Prayaas" has, over the years, served as a creative platform to mould the young artistic minds of tomorrow. Art, as we all know, helps in shaping our sensibilities for the expression of abstract ideas and for turning amateur students into trained artists. I wish that this endeavour will continue to fulfill its objectives and prove to be an enriching experience for the viewers as well. Let me also congratulate the faculty members of the Department for all their efforts towards curating this exhibition and convey my best wishes to them for this creative journey towards artistic brilliance.

“The principles of true art is not to portray, but to evoke”.

Whether painting, sculpture, dance, theatre, music or film, art allows us to feel the essence of life. Art is not literal, but metaphorical. It is a medium to express what words fail to convey. In this sense, art is more real and truthful, than reality. To me, art is an alternative world, one we create that stands in contrast to the world we regularly live in, which is messy, unplanned, unedited, uninspired, draining, largely immoral.

Meenal Shekhawat
President, Visual Arts

“We don’t make mistakes, just happy little accidents”.

Allow me to begin with a sincere confession: Colours, play of light & shadow, and shades depicting diversity of thoughts have fascinated me from a young age. Art plays an integral part in my life. It is defines through expression and applying human creative skill and imagination. I think that art and culture have an interesting way of intertwining. Both radiate emotions, expressions and illustrate internal conflict.

Sakshi Jain
Vice President, Visual Arts

SPORTS ACTIVITIES

“Champions do not become champions when they win the event, but in the hours, weeks, months and years they spend preparing for it. The victorious performance itself is merely the demonstration of their championship character.”

Gain a passion for sports, love the morning, love the environment, love playing and in no time you will love your life even more and enjoy it to your fullest. Our greatest weakness lies in giving up and the most certain way to succeed is always to try just one more time. Do not aspire to be the best on the team, aspire to be the best for the team.

Success is not given. It is earned on the track, on the field, in the gym. With blood, sweat and the occasional tear.

Certificate course in Yoga

Yoga is a healing system of theory and practice. The purpose of yoga is to create strength, awareness and harmony in both mind and body. The relaxation techniques incorporated in yoga can lessen chronic pain, such as lower back pain, arthritis, headaches and carpal tunnel syndrome. Yoga can also lower blood pressure and reduce insomnia. It increases flexibility, muscle strength and tone, respiration, energy and vitality and weight reduction with improved athletic performance. Stress can reveal itself in many ways, including back or neck pain, sleeping problems, headaches, drug abuse and an inability to concentrate. Hence, aside from the array of physical benefits, one of the best benefits of yoga is that it manages stress. For such well being promotion, the university also offers Yoga courses for students and faculty members every year. The Certificate course in Yoga (60 hrs.) is running in the University campus at present.
