ANNUAL PLAY -“Ek Bhoot Ki Atmakatha”

The students of the IISU Theatrical Society staged their Annual Play 2019 titled “Ek Bhoot Ki Atmakatha” on 23rd September, 2019. The play was a culmination of a 30 day workshop that taught the participants various styles of theatre, disciplines and etiquettes of working on stage.

The Chief Guest of the play was, the renowned theatre and film artist, Ms. Ratna Pathak Shah. She not only acknowledged the teams’ efforts into creating the play but also provided useful insights about what the focus points while performing should be.

The entirety of the play was a result of a lot of time put in and had its own moments. After all, Rome wasn’t built in day.

Process and milestones of the workshop:

The journey of 30 days was a splendid one. Each step, leading the students to become better actors and moreover, better people with strong personas.

The workshop began with the basic step of familiarization. Introducing themselves, the students’ ideas and reasons to join theatre acted as a small window to knowing the team. They got to know the director, Mr. Siva Prasad Tumu and understood his expectations from the play, the team and his work ethics.

The very next step and one of the most important one was that of interpretation. It involved looking at the play beyond literal levels of understanding. Participants pondered upon the message these stories are trying to convey and how they link them to the real world. Through this, they got an outlook upon how the participants were not there as blank slates but came with their own set of thoughts which needed to be spoken out.

Portrayal through improvisations was a very intriguing step of the process. It not only showed how creative the participants were but also brought out their opinions in a structured manner. Each group gave different forms of the same story in different styles like mime, musical or dance drama or through plain narratives but with intricate formats.

Through these improvisations, the director moved on to character blocking. This was done through linking the participants’ personalities with the characters’ needs. Each person brought their own eccentricities and ideography as a contribution to the characters’ development.

Once the blocking was complete, the plot as a whole was formed. The loop holes were understood and covered and each story was worked upon numerous times with several different styles. In this, our acting trainers, Mr. Jagannath Seth and Mr. Mahesh Godeshwar, played a significant role.

The participants were introduced to Chaau dance and Pina Bausch's style of theatrics. Mr. Seth made them understand the importance of inculcating the habit of feeling the rhythm of the music and the essence of the story and bringing it out in our movements. Mr. Godeshwar essentially worked on building an aura and leaving your presence on stage long after you've exited. Speech should not be limited only to words and dialogues but should create a link between the actor and the audience was his training motto.

The first run through was an impactful moment and nothing less than a milestone in this workshop. The students understood what the play was trying to tell us, how strong its message is and how much more we need to contribute to it. It was one of the most emotionally moving aspect of this workshop.

Further to this came the stages of property development, set development, lighting and music settings and most importantly the art of projection techniques. The participants actively worked through the nitty-gritties of the play. Among other things was understanding how to use the stage space and exploring all possibilities of the set that was so vigorously made.

One thing that this workshop taught everybody all is that 'Theatre' is not just being on stage and delivering dialogues. It's about understanding others and more importantly, ourselves. From getting rid of inhibitions, stage fears and mental blocks to knowing that no matter how quirky you might be, theatre accepts you for who you are.

It taught us that no role is big or small. We're all working as a cohesive unit which might break and fall if one of us is lax.

This is a place where we find solace among a whole team. A little bit of you can be found in everyone.

The themes of the rounds were as follows:

- Indigo Fables : Of all the rainbow colours, one knew this one's between violet and blue. Deep and rich, a bit towards azure it's sustainable fashion, for sure. Indigo rules and how! The collection comprising pants, tops and skirts, crafted from cotton-dyed fabrics, tells a scintillating story of fashion clothing done right.
- Nostalgic Vibes : Old drapes get a whole new avataar in this reflective collection which draws inspiration from the four gates of the City Palace in Jaipur. Stately spirit gets transformed in silks, crepes and nets in tints of green, blue, brown and pink, adorned with embroidery and gota work to recreate the regal splendour of the past.
- Bewitching Blend : Freedom would not be to choose between black and white, but to adjure such a prescribed choice. Quintessentially opposite in a cultural and visual sense, this formal wear collection in black and white is a rage. Chic trousers, skirts with nifty tops and jackets in stripes and animal prints are sure to give the dull and boring board-room dressing a bold and sassy makeover.

The program was then followed by prayer.

Dr. Ashok Gupta felicitated the guest of honor with a memento. In the welcome note, he expressed his gratitude to the chief guest Sh. Sunit Tandon, and Dr. Nand Bharadwaj and Dr. Prateek Bhatnagar, who also marked their honorary presence in the fest. He encouraged and appreciated the huge participation and shared how the media fest has always created a platform with plethora of activities for budding actors, ad makers and film makers to showcase their talent and skills. He wished all students and participants an enriching and invigorating experience through enthusiastic participation in events.

The inaugural ceremony marked the release of the 27th issue of “YOUTH SPEAK”, the quarterly newsletter, prepared and edited by the students and faculty of journalism and mass communication, another endeavor, to cover the recent happening on campus and providing a forum for learners to pen their views and opinions through articles, poems and essays.

Sh. Sunit Tandon highly admired the idea of the fest and explained the importance of such events for students as they guide and direct budding artists to raise their voice and write their thoughts to enter and emerge as professionals in the world of media and journalism. He shared his own experiences and real life anecdotes, explaining how from being an extremely introvert and scholarly student, he entered the space of his own passion and aptitude and strived to maintain and survive his interest areas. He inspired and motivated students through words of wisdom and insisted that satisfaction, happiness and content could be achieved in life by following passions, and not money, name or fame. To support his views, he shared his story of becoming an anchor in Lok Sabha News after quitting job at SBI to continue his passion at AIR and Doordarshan news. He wished all the participants a great luck ahead in their life and a really bright career. In all 150 students participated in various events of Vividha.

Dr. Garima Srivastava delivered the vote of thanks at the end of the ceremony and supported the views of the chief guest that the function of journalism is to educate public mind and not to stock it with unwanted impressions and clearly nation. She thanked him for accepting the invitation and sparing his valuable time for the event. She extended her gratitude to the Vice Chancellor and Registrar for their invaluable guidance during the planning and execution of the event. She believed that the event could not have seen the light without the support of faculty members and students of the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication. Objective of Vividha is to make students of Journalism and Mass Communication understand the various aspects of Journalism and Mass Communication. The main objective of Vividha is to make students learn teamwork, showcase talent and coordinate all the activities of the media fest. Fresco Workshop

Date: 5-25 February 2020

Venue: Department of Fine Arts

No. of Participants: 35 Students, 7 staff Members and 2 Office attendants

Objective of the workshop/seminar/activity: to learn an ancient Indian painting technique 'Fresco Buon' which was a very prominent style of painting and can be seen in the frescos of Ajanta and was lost in the time due to invasions and some of the other reasons?

Description (max 500 words): Fresco is a style of painting which is done on the prepared walls. It is an ancient Indian technique which is being practiced by a few artists of India. Dr. Nathulal Verma a miniature artist as well as a fresco artist is well known in this field. Another artist cum artisan Mr. Radha kishanji is also technically sound in preparing surface, colour and tiles to teach students the actual technique of Fresco Buon. The main objective of the workshop was to learn this ancient Indian technique to work on walls.

A piece of art is just not the final end product, it's the artist's hard work, patience, a lot of thought process put into it. It is to know from where it originated, the history it has. It requires a lot of hard work and patience to create an artwork. The students of Fine Arts were able to experience this in the "Fresco Workshop" conducted by The Department of Fine Arts, IIS Deemed to be University from 5th - 25th February'20.

Dr. Nathulal Verma and Radha Kishan Ji were the eminent artists who guided our students through it. In this 20 day workshop the 35 students learnt the art of making a fresco tile from the scratch. Starting from how a tile is made, how to make the natural colours, the process of applying it. Their patience was tested along with it, taking care of the tile as if it was a child. The phrase of putting all your heart and soul in an art work was well seen in action here.

Our faculty members and lab assistants didn't stay behind. They took this as an opportunity to enhance their skill and knowledge. They enjoyed being a student again. This chance of getting the knowledge first hand about an age old art form from the artist was a golden opportunity for everyone.

Outcome of the activity/event/seminar/workshop: The students of painting could learn one of the famous painting style of Indian Art. They were taught to create tiles made of ancient methods, make colours through natural things like minerals, Kajal, semi precious stones etc. The students learnt the whole process of painting and technique. They were asked to create one or two tiles but they got so much interest in that they created more than three or four tiles. A great enthusiasm could be seen in the students to learn this technique and creating many tiles.

The IISU Theatre Orientation- 2019 was organised on 30th July 2019 by the IISU Theatrical Society. The Orientation Programme saw an enthusiastic participation of the students who were all geared up to attend the same. The programme commenced with a monologue presented by a member student Mansi Choudhary which was focused on how a girl survives it when the world isn't aware about what she is going through, while her innocence is being drenched in the darkness.

The programme included the introduction to the IISU Theatrical Society by Dr. Aditi R. Khandelwal (Convenor) via a PowerPoint Presentation in which she introduced the students to various coordinators and members of the society. The students were also briefed about the various events and achievements of the society, along with the introduction to the Annual Theatre Workshop and the Career Oriented Skill Developing (COSD) Course in Theatre.

Hate and crime against minorities have spiked in India since 2010, dozens of men have been lynched by mobs. With further explanation to this, next was a mono act performed by another student Mili Chadha. To lighten up the mood and spread some giggles, mono act was followed by a comic-skit presented by the students of theatrical society titled "JUNG-E-JUNGLE" which was a live telecast of the news show jung-e-jungle depicting what if all animals go on recusance against humans and to witness who will be there next leader. The skit truly made everyone laugh their heads off.

In order to break the ice, few fun-filled theatre activities were also conducted, that not only allowed the students to interact with everyone but also tested their awareness and presence of mind. The orientation was concluded with audience feedback and a note of thanks.

SKIT ON ANTI-RAGGING

Date : 10th August, 2019

Time: 12:00 Noon

Venue: Srijan Hall ,IISU Jaipur

No. of students participated : 19 students

The 1st year students of COSD Theatre Studies & Theatrical Society performed the first skit based on 'Anti-Ragging' on 10th August 2019 in Srijan hall at 12:00 Noon.

The skit revolved around the realization by the bullies that ragging is not a joke. The whole story revolved around a group of seniors in college and how they harass the new comers in their college. However when one of the bullies' sister is injured in the act of ragging, they rectify their mistake and understand that playing with somebody's life is not something that can be taken lightly.

The 5 minute play entails a series of events and explains that even the most insignificant acts of calling out, extortion (in case of assignments) or embarrassment to freshers can be harmful. The performance made students aware of UGC's rules and regulations against ragging and the compulsory measures for colleges to take in case of such events and the punishment that the culprits can face.

All in all, the skit was an active effort by the Anti-Ragging committee and Theatre students to encourage freshers to report any incidents of abuse or humiliation that might take place in the college premises. It promoted students to be fearless and explore college life without inhibitions and with confidence.

SKIT "TALE OF 1947"

Date : 19th August 2019

Time: 09:30 AM

Venue: Srijan Hall ,IISU Jaipur

No. of students participated : 03 students

The IISU Theatrical society's students Priyal Mathur and Nitya Saxena performed a play "Tale of 1947" on 19th August 2019 at 9:30 AM in Srijan Hall for all the students of Cultural Activity. Tale of 1947 is a story of two friends Muhammed and Jugal who face dilemmatic situation during partition. The story is penned by leading Urdu-short story writer Sadat Hasan Manto after partition of India. The play was graced by enthusiastic participation of students and various faculty members who were all geared up to attend the same.

About the play:

Religious violence in India includes acts of violence by followers of one religious group against followers and institutions of another religious group, often in the form of rioting. Religious violence in India has generally involved Hindus and Muslims. The partition displaced between 10-12 million people along religious lines, creating overwhelming refugee crises in the newly constituted dominions; there was large-scale violence, with estimates of loss of life. The violent nature of the partition created an atmosphere of hostility and suspicion between India and Pakistan that plagues their relationship to the present.

Our play showcased this disease of bitterness which grew among every single person including Muhammad and Jugal, two close friends who couldn't even imagine a day without each other but later became the part of partition ending with Jugal killing Muhammad because of their religious fights. After partition was announced, the subcontinent descended quickly into riots and bloodshed resulting not only open killing of Hindus and Muslims but also murder of their unbreakable yet breakable relationships.

We are extremely thankful to our teacher co-ordinator Dr. Aditi R. Khandelwal who always keeps us encouraged to prepare such theatre pieces and giving us innumerable opportunities to perform the same.

RAGGING - A SOCIAL EVIL

Date : 26nd August, 2019

Time: 9:30 AM.

Venue: Ojas Hall, IISU Jaipur

No. of students participated : 19 students

The 1st year students of COSD Theatre Studies & Theatrical Society performed skit based on the evils of ragging in educational institutions on 26th August in Ojas Hall at 9:30 AM.

It was a story of a group of seniors who engaged themselves in ragging their juniors. The skit revolved around the realization by the bullies that ragging is not a joke. This happens when one of the bullies' sister is injured in the act of ragging. On realization they rectify their mistake and understand that playing with somebody's life is not something that can be taken lightly.

The 5 minute play entails a series of events and explains that even the most insignificant acts of calling out, extortion (in case of assignments) or embarrassment to freshers can be harmful. The performance made students aware of UGC's rules and regulations against ragging and the compulsory measures for colleges to take in case of such events and the punishment that the culprits can face.

All in all, the skit was an active effort by the Anti-Ragging committee and Theatre students to encourage freshers' to report any incidents of abuse or humiliation that might take place in the college premises. It promoted students to be fearless and explore college life without inhibitions and with confidence.

Resource Person: Padmashri Niranjan Goswami, Founder, Indian Mime Theatre

“We make the visible invisible and the invisible visible.”

This is how Padmashri Niranjan Goswami describes his art form: mime.

On the 9th of September, 2019, Shri Niranjan Goswami visited the IIS University as a guest lecturer and guided the students of the Theatrical Society about the foundation of mime in India and its origin. Shri Niranjan Goswami was born in 1949, Dhaka, Bangladesh. He trained in mime with Jogesh Dutta from 1966 to 1969 at the latter's institution Padaboli, and trained himself in theatre working with Sombhu Mitra at Bohurupee between 1970 and 1975. He established the Indian Mime Theatre in 1976. Shri Goswami has advanced the practice of mime as an independent genre in Indian theatre with his performances over the past two decades.

Among his significant productions are Sonarganyer Meye (1983), Dena Paona (1989), Srikanta (1990), Beej (1995), and Nagamandala (1997). Most of these are based on well-known literary works. To build up an audience for mime, Shri Goswami has been organizing festivals of mime theatre since the mid-1980s. He has also taught mime at several institutions, including the National School of Drama in Delhi, the Trissur School of Drama, and the Film and Television Institute of India, Pune. He has given lecture- demonstrations at the University of California at Los Angeles, U.S.A., and the Jawaharlal Nehru University in Delhi. Shri Goswami has been working with deaf children for several years, some of whom have won young Talent Scholarships of the Government of India. He has performed in the World Youth Festival (1989) in Pyongyang, North Korea, and the Shanghai International Art Festival (2002) in China, and has besides toured Europe, the former Soviet Union, and the United States as a cultural delegate.

Among other honours, he has received the All India Critics Association Award in 1998. He was awarded a Senior Research Fellowship by the Department of Culture, Government of India, in 2001.

Shri Niranjana Goswami received the Sangeet Natak Akademi Award for his excellence as an actor in mime. As part of the lecture, Sir illustrated the intricacies of mime. He taught the students the relevance of painting the face in mime, how the whole body acts instead of words, the extraction of mime from Natyashastra as 'Mukhabhinaya' and many such things. Currently, Sir has founded the National Mime Institute in Kolkata that gives a post graduate course in theatre. For the students, it was an enlightening experience to meet somebody with such a powerful aura. Sir left them with an insight to the world of mime. He taught the students how one must incarnate oneself into the object so as to understand the art. It was an enriching experience to say the least.

On the 22nd of September, the students of the IIS Theatrical Society performed their grand run through for the annual play-“Ek Bhoot Ki Atmakatha”. It was the 29th day of their 30 day workshop. The event was attended by the students of the India International School, Kshiprapath. The day of the Grand Run had an energetic start. All technical adjustments were taken care of and the participants performed vocal and physical exercises right before the beginning of the play.

In the duration of the play, the students faced many ups and downs. Problems came in forms of technical issues, dialogue delivery, entries and exits and most of all the energy required to keep the performances engaging throughout the span of 65 minutes. Nevertheless, the participants picked up the pace whenever there was a fall, improvised their way through mistakes, compensated for the setbacks with their acting and never gave up.

For the audience, the span of an hour is not a great one. However, only the actors, directors, technical teams and trainers know what kind of struggles a team faces when bringing a production to life. For the team, the Grand Run is a deciding factor. It is a determinant of how ready they are, it tells them what they lack, what they did right and gives them the confidence to carry out everything they've constructed.

The 22nd of September was an emotional day for the team, knowing that their journey would end in a few hours and what they'd spend so much time working upon would finally be out for the world to see, for the world to hear.

ANNUAL PLAY 2019-20

Date : 23rd SEPTEMBER, 2019

Time: 05:30 PM

Venue: The IIS Auditorium, Kshipra Path, Jaipur

No. of students participated: 30

Resource Person: Shiva Tumu, Assistant Professor, Department of Dramatics, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur

The students of the IISU Theatrical Society staged their Annual Play 2019 titled “Ek Bhoot Ki Atmakatha” on 23rd September, 2019. The play was a culmination of a 30 day workshop that taught the participants various styles of theatre, disciplines and etiquettes of working on stage.

The Chief Guest of the play was, the renowned theatre and film artist, Ms. Ratna Pathak Shah. She not only acknowledged the teams’ efforts into creating the play but also provided useful insights about what the focus points while performing should be. The entirety of the play was a result of a lot of time put in and had its own moments. After all, Rome wasn’t built in day.

Process and milestones of the workshop:

The journey of 30 days was a splendid one. Each step, leading the students to become better actors and moreover, better people with strong personas. The workshop began with the basic step of familiarization. Introducing themselves, the students’ ideas and reasons to join theatre acted as a small window to knowing the team. They got to know the director, Mr. Siva Prasad Tumu and understood his expectations from the play, the team and his work ethics. The very next step and one of the most important one was that of interpretation. It involved looking at the play beyond literal levels of understanding. Participants pondered upon the message these stories are trying to convey and how they link them to the real world. Through this, they got an outlook upon how the participants were not there as blank slates but came with their own set of thoughts which needed to be spoken out. Portrayal through improvisations was a very intriguing step of the process. It not only showed how creative the participants were but also brought out their opinions in a structured manner.

Each group gave different forms of the same story in different styles like mime, musical or dance drama or through plain narratives but with intricate formats. Through these improvisations, the director moved on to character blocking. This was done through linking the participants' personalities with the characters' needs. Each person brought their own eccentricities and ideography as a contribution to the characters' development. Once the blocking was complete, the plot as a whole was formed. The loop holes were understood and covered and each story was worked upon numerous times with several different styles. In this, our acting trainers, Mr. Jagannath Seth and Mr. Mahesh Godeshwar, played a significant role. The participants were introduced to Chaau dance and Pina Bausch's style of theatrics. Mr. Seth made them understand the importance of inculcating the habit of feeling the rhythm of the music and the essence of the story and bringing it out in our movements. Mr. Godeshwar essentially worked on building an aura and leaving your presence on stage long after you've exited. Speech should not be limited only to words and dialogues but should create a link between the actor and the audience was his training motto. The first run through was an impactful moment and nothing less than a milestone in this workshop. The students understood what the play was trying to tell us, how strong its message is and how much more we need to contribute to it. It was one of the most emotionally moving aspect of this workshop. Further to this came the stages of property development, set development, lighting and music settings and most importantly the art of projection techniques. The participants actively worked through the nitty-gritties of the play. Among other things was understanding how to use the stage space and exploring all possibilities of the set that was so vigorously made.

One thing that this workshop taught everybody all is that 'Theatre' is not just being on stage and delivering dialogues. It's about understanding others and more importantly, ourselves. From getting rid of inhibitions, stage fears and mental blocks to knowing that no matter how quirky you might be, theatre accepts you for who you are. It taught us that no role is big or small. We're all working as a cohesive unit which might break and fall if one of us is lax. This is a place where we find solace among a whole team. A little bit of you can be found in everyone.

PLAY IN CITY..... बॉलीवुड एक्ट्रेस रत्ना पाठक शाह भी वहीं मौजूद 'एक भूत की आत्मकथा' से समाज के पाखंड पर किया कटाक्ष

जयपुर • मानसरोवर स्थित एक कॉलेज में थिएट्रिकल सोसायटी के स्टूडेंट्स की ओर से नाटक 'एक भूत की आत्मकथा' का मंचन किया गया। तीस दिन की बर्कशाप में तैयार नाटक के एनवाड पतंजलि की ओर से रचित तैलुगु नवेल 'ओक्का देय्यम' का नाटकीय रूपांतरण है। नाटक का निर्देशन शिव प्रसाद तुमु ने किया है। 'एक भूत की आत्मकथा' एक राजनीतिक व्यंग्य है, जो समाज में मौजूद पाखंड पर कटाक्ष करता है। हमारे समाज में यह परम्परा व्याप्त है कि राजा का बेटा राजा ही बनाता है, फिर चाहे उसमें राजा बनने की काबिलियत हो या न हो। ठीक उसी प्रकार डेविल राजा का बेटा होने के नाते खुद को जानी समझ आत्मकथा लिखना शुरू करता है। जिसके लिए दूसरों की अज्ञानता की समझना ही ज्ञान

है। ऐसे में जब उसकी मुलाकात बंधव से होती है तो उसे दुनिया में व्याप्त सच्चाई का पता लगता है और आखिरकार आत्मकथा लिखने का खयाल अपने मन से त्याग देता है। नाटक में चार अलग-अलग कहानियों को दर्शाया गया। कार्यक्रम में बॉलीवुड एक्ट्रेस रत्ना पाठक शाह मुख्य अतिथि के रूप में मौजूद रहीं।

'एक भूत की आत्मकथा' राजनीतिक व्यंग्य पर आधारित नाटक

Nav Xpress | शाहजहां ने मुमताज के लिए ताजमहल बनवाया इस तथ्य से सभी वाकिफ हैं लेकिन वो कारीगर कौन थे जिनके जादुई हाथों ने एक ऐसी खूबसूरत इमारत को खड़ा किया जो दुनिया के सातवें अजूबों में शुमार हुआ। ठीक उसी तरह से आजकल हर कोई अपनी आत्मकथा लिख रहा है जिसमें खुद की प्रशंसा से ज्यादा दूसरों की निंदा का बोलबाला होता है। लेकिन इसी बीच लाखों प्रेरक लोग ऐसे भी होते हैं जिनकी कहानियां दर्बो रह जाती हैं। इसी कहानी पर आधारित नाटक 'एक भूत की आत्मकथा' का मंचन सोमवार को आईआईएसयू थिएट्रिकल सोसायटी के स्टूडेंट्स ने शिंप्रापथ स्थित ईडिया इंटरनेशनल स्कूल के ऑडिटोरियम में किया। डायरेक्टर शिव प्रसाद तुमु के अनुसार यह नाटक मानवीय समाज एवं प्रकृति के अंधेरे पहलू पर ध्यान आकर्षित करने की कोशिश करता है। डायरेक्टर के अनुसार उनके लिए ऑडियंस को संदेश प्रेषित करना जितना जरूरी है उससे कहीं ज्यादा जरूरी है इस नाटक में भाग लेने वाली छात्राओं को समाज के प्रति जागरूक व संवेदनशील बनाना। कार्यक्रम के अंत में अतिथि रत्ना पाठक शाह ने नाटक में स्टूडेंट्स की मेहनत और एक्टिंग स्किल्स को खूब सराहा और एक्टिंग के क्षेत्र में अपने प्रयास जारी रखने के लिए प्रोत्साहित किया। विश्वविद्यालय के कुलपति डॉ. अशोक गुप्ता ने सभी प्रतिभागियों के नाटक में बेहतरीन प्रदर्शन पर सभी की शुभकामनाएं दी एवं उन्हें सहभागिता प्रमाण पत्र वितरित किए।

नाट्य कार्यशाला : 'एक भूत की आत्मकथा' ने दिए कई संदेश

जयपुर (कासं)। राजनीतिक व्यंग्य को कसने के साथ मानवीय समाज और प्रकृति के अंधेरे पहलुओं पर रोशनी डालता डॉस ड्रामा 'एक भूत की आत्मकथा' का नृत्य और संगीत के जरिए संप्रेषित कर स्टूडेंट्स ने अपनी नाट्य कला का बेहतरीन प्रदर्शन किया। टी आईआईएसयू थिएटरिकल सोसायटी की यह प्रेशकश सोमवार की शाम मानसरोवर स्थित इंडिया इंटरनेशनल स्कूल ऑडिटोरियम में हुई। तीस दिन की नाट्य कार्यशाला में करीब 45 स्टूडेंट ने इस शाम सीखे अपने थिएटरिकल सबक को मंच पर उतारा। इस शो की मुख्य अतिथि रही फिल्म, टीवी और स्टेज की जानी-मानी अदाकार रत्ना शाह पाठक। नाटक एनवाई पतंजलि द्वारा रचित तेलुगु नावल 'ओक्का देय्यम आत्मकथा' का नाटकीय रूपांतरण है। यहां इस नाटक का निर्देशन शिव प्रसाद तुमु ने किया। इस संगीतमय प्रस्तुति में जानवरों के माध्यम लघु कहानियों के जरिए कई संदेश दिए गए। इनमें, कुछ थे,

जैसे ज्ञानी को इतना भी सिर नहीं चढ़ाना चाहिए कि वो दूसरों के ज्ञान को भी शंका में डाल दे। इसी तरह सत्य के साथ असत्य को भी जानना आवश्यक है और दूसरों को दी गई नसीहत कभी-कभी खुद पर ही भारी पड़ जाती है। नाटक में मुख्य पात्रों ने जहां नाट्य परिकल्पना में कॉस्ट्यूम और मंच सजा का सुंदर इस्तेमाल किया, वहीं प्रभावी संगीत की इसकी विशेषता रही। केंद्रीय भूमिका में ज्योति शर्मा, वृत्तिका धाभाई के साथ प्रियल माथुर, जह्वाबी राठौड़, आकांक्षा मीना आदि सहित पूरी टीम ने नृत्य एवं अभिनय में तकनीक तथा सहज आंतरिक स्फूर्ति का कुशल संयोग करवम रखा। कार्यक्रम के अंत में रत्नाशाह पाठक ने स्टूडेंट्स को एक्टिंग स्किल्स की सराहना करते उनका सम्मान किया। यूनिवर्सिटी के कुलपति डॉ. अशोक गुप्ता, उपकुलपति राखी गुप्ता ने सभी का स्वागत किया और नाटक की बेहतरीन प्रस्तुति के लिए कलाकारों को शुभकामना दी।

The Government of India observes 14th September 2019 every year as an annual day to celebrate Hindi as one of the official language of India. Recognising the same an ebullient performance was organised by the students of IISU Theatrical Society on 30 September 2019. A skit on Hindi divas called 'Hindi Hamara Gaurav' took place on the stage area at 12:00 noon. The event aimed at creating awareness of the merits of Hindi and its utility to the respective audience and to the participants.

The skit started with the jovial background music and attractive poems sung by the respective participants. The skit was about how and from where our official language Hindi has originated how it has become an important part of our society. The play talks about Hindi becoming an official language to Bihar, the discovery of its name and about how so many other languages were also originated from Hindi. Hindi is not only spoken by natives of India but by many other countries also, this fact was very beautifully enacted by the participants.

SKIT - "VOICES- A PERFORMANCE ON MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES"

Date : 10th October, 2019

Time: 12:00 NOON

Venue: Srijan Hall ,IISU Jaipur

No. of participant : 24

On the occasion of World Mental Health Day, the students of the IISU Theatrical Society presented a theatrical production that touched topics ranging from social stigmas about mental health to the root causes of issues which lead to suicides. The skit began with the topic of harrasment based on abilities and appearances students face in their day to day lives. In the time where we look for peers who are perfect in all ways and fit the labels that look good on social media. The pressure to look a certain way to be a part of all social settings. The second scene highlighted the unhealthy competition in the teen world to secure jobs so as to have a successful lifestyle, approved by society. The act revolved around how everyone is racing to be first, to be the richest and it doesn't matter whether you're happy running this race. You just have to keep going or be trampled. The very next scene talked about emotionally exhaustive and abusive relationships people fall into. It was an issue that was an important highlight, because as young adults, we all need to understand how to cope with heartbreak and where to draw the lines. Most significant of all was the fact that we tend to lose our identity when engaged in a relationship. This is the most distressing part of the young adult phase.

The final scene was based on the sensitive issue of social discrimination. This scene held great emotional momentum as the actors recited Rohith Vemula's suicide letter. Rohith Vemula was one of the five Dalit students in JNU who faced social boycott at the hands of the university administration. His suicide brought to everyone's notice the mental abuse and humiliation faced by Dalits in all social settings.

Overall, the performance was a cocktail of all issues that in very small ways affects mental health in our everyday lives. Every 40 seconds, one person commits suicide. Every 40 seconds, a life goes untended to, helpless and unheard. There's a lot that we can do to help people around them. We can create awareness, inform people that mental health is not a taboo. It's okay to not be okay.

Street play is a bold way of expressing our thoughts and feelings through our actions. All the teams understood this aspect, they definitely touched the social aspects of our society which needs to be thought about. Many sensitive topics were touched. For instance, JECRC team took upon a topic of how women's menstruation is a gossip point, how everyone around discriminates and devalue a woman while they go through this pain. Another team, Manipal University, talked about mental illness and its effect on human survival. They showed how our lives have become full of suicides and ultimate mental illness. The IIS University showcased a thought of how we all points out problems on our own country, where we actually forget to look at the good things we have. MONOLOGUE MANIA

Emotions are better expressed than spoken. It can be seen by few monologues presented on 23rd of December, 2019 in University Campus. Three COSD theatre students came forward with their entirely different but enlightening performances. The first performance named "Dosti" was about a girl who lost his best friend , who was not just a friend , but family. The monologue portrayed the hidden emotion of loneliness and emptiness that exists within the girl. It talked about the small but crucial things we share in friendship.

The next performance named " koi toh ho" was based on a girl who is all alone in spite of so many people around. Who smiles but does not feel the gay from inside. She is a book reader, who is tired of being alone. The character blames the society for being selfish and not real. The third monologue, famously known was "gagan da mama bajyo". The character showcased intense sadness and about what had happened in jalian wala bagh through the eyes of a sister who lost her brother there. The performance was filled with feelings and intensity. All the acts took the hearts of audiences. It was wonderful to watch them perform.

GUEST LECTURE ON THE TOPIC 'THEATRE TO TV'

Date : 16th January, 2020

Time: 10:00 AM

Venue: Aditya Hall, IISU Jaipur

No. of students participated : 100 students

Resource Person : Mr. Ankit Sharma

On the 16th of January, 2020, actor Saurabh Sharma visited the IIS University, Jaipur for a session for the Theatrical Society.

TV and Bollywood actor, Ankit Sharma, started his career from Jaipur itself. He was a theatre actor and then moved to Mumbai to pursue his career further on.

In his session, the students learned about his struggle after coming to Mumbai around 8 years ago.

The students were allowed to ask him questions and the Patiala Babes actor, very patiently answered them too!

With this session, the students learned that one should always keep an open mind. Shifting from theatre to the film industry is a whole process that requires acceptance and will power.

He also taught the students that they should definitely follow their dreams if they're very confident in themselves.

Questions like how to deal with rejection, how hard TV actors have to work, the difference between theatre and films, etc. were asked.

All in all, the entirety of the session was eye opening and knowledgeable for the students. They received answers that were not only long pending, but also realistic.

Sir ended the session by telling the kids that once you reach your dreams, everyone who has ever picked on you will look up on you. He also told them to be aware of their surroundings and where passion is a great thing, practicality shouldn't be left out when pursuing your dreams.

Date : 20th -23rd January, 2020

Time: 11:00 AM

Venue: Aditya Hall, IISU, Jaipur

No. of students participated : 150-200

On the 20th of January, the IISU Theatrical Society conducted a 3-day Annual Play Marathon.

The marathon showcased all the annual plays held from the year 2012 in the IIS University.

The plays included, 'Little Angels', 'Thankyou Baba Lochan Das', 'Paan Khayenge', 'Saleeb', 'Rustom-O-Sohrab', 'Sakinah', 'Phool and Fools' and the latest addition, 'Ek Bhoot Ki Atmakatha'.

The 3-day marathon was a walk down the memory lane for the students of the Theatrical Society.

A play takes a lot of time and effort in its making. To see all these efforts, emotions, bonds and the process of its production replay in front of them was a sentimental ride.

Each play came with its message and specificity.

The Annual play Marathon left the students wanting more. They shall revisit these memories in the 9th Annual Play and eagerly so!

Time: 12 noon

Venue: Aditya hall, IISU, Jaipur

Number of Participants: 05

COSD Diploma theatre students presented their production "Brush and Blush" on 25th of January which was performed from stationery and then actors walked towards aditya hall for further play . The play depicted the theme "Beauty is in the eyes of the beholder"

What if your eyes have become conditioned to see beauty as we see on screens.

This play is about the ideas of beauty evolving through time Our culture and traditions have such a great impact on the ideas and perspectives of how we see a woman, and this thought is so rigid and comes so naturally that we fail, even to register it.

The play was directed by Ms. Mumal tanwar.

It was a mixture of devising and documentary theatre. It was the first moving theatre of university. Play was ended with personal stories of actors, which left a great impact on audience.

All the faculty members and the students enjoyed the performance and cheered up the participants with heavy applaud.

A day filled with amusing jokes and comical timing. On 25th of January Papa CJ, a stand-up comedian visited the IISU theatrical society. Papa CJ is a stand-up comedian from India. The children were full of zeal and determination to create unique masks. They brought out their own ideas to the table and no one wanted to be left behind! From pointy noses and horns to devilish eyes and unicorns, they wanted it all! The students, on the other hand, interacted with the children. They talked to them about their daily routines and what they aspire to be in life. Overall, the day one on excursion was successful and left the students wanting more!

DAY 2 - THEATRICALS AND CRAFT TECHNIQUES

The second day of the Mask making excursion for the IISU Theatrical Society included theatricals and craft techniques. The students helped the children decorate, paint and give a theme to their masks. All of them were assigned characters and the students helped them prepare small 1 minute performances.

The performances showcased the creativity of the young minds. The performances ranged from cartoons, witches, jokers and unicorns to environment conservation.

After that, the children showed the students of the Theatrical Society a small play they had prepared. It was a great performance that acknowledged our presence at the school. It left most of the students emotional and feeling enriched by the end.

The students learned more than they taught from the children. They learnt how to be as enthusiastic about the small things in life like the children. They all sure left wanting more of this bittersweet experience.

STAGE PLAY “QURBAT”

Date : 8th March, 2020

Time: 12:00 noon

Venue: Stage, IISU, Jaipur

No. of participants: 17

On the 8th of March, the students of the IISU Theatrical Society performed their stage play ‘Qurbat’ at Stage, IISU, Jaipur.

The event was carried out by Queerious Conversations and Global Shapers Community, Jaipur. Ever since the making of the play, ‘Qurbat’ had only been performed in competitions. However, to perform the play only to be able to spread its message, to be able to make people aware and fight for the LGBTQIA+ community as allies was a wholesome feeling.

Qurbat was a name that the entire team decided upon as one. It means a feeling of intimacy and attachment. Through the play, the team was trying to put forth the message that attachment is not bound by gender, sexuality or anything physical. It’s purely from the heart. It doesn’t limit or bind you. It frees you.

The association with Queerious Conversations was brought to the students via Ms. Shikha Soni. Apart from the regular performance, stickers that related to one of the dialogues in the play were curated.

Even though there are wide spread communities and support, people often tend to find themselves alone when they hit rock bottom. The only chance then is to stand strong by yourself.

To all the people who find it difficult to stand alone, to everyone who find it difficult to fight alone, we asked,

“Kya khudko bheed mein akela pakar dar gaye tum?”

Time: 2.30 P.M.

Venue: JNU

No. of students participated: 5

On the 27th of September, 2019, the students of the IISU Theatrical Society took part in the JNU ad mania competition.

The competition was a part of JNU's fest Technorazz.

The theme was to make an ad on tea. The participants from IIS Theatrical society were Priyal Mathur, Chandrika Jajoo, Suhani Jain, Garima Israni and Yashika Vijay.

The brand that was promoted was Jaago Mohan Chai and the tagline the students picked was “Ye pee jaye to din ban Jaye!”.

The event was an amazing experience for the students and did a lot to improve the participants' spontaneity. It is a big task to come up with something at the moment which is not only worth performing, but should also stick with the audience.

The students had a blast at the event and learned a lot about on stage ethics and team work.

All in all, the competition brought out the best in the students and added another feather to their cap!

An astonishing conference session on rethinking theatre, dramatic and unsustainable studies (RTDS2019) was organised by Amity University from 15-16th October 2019. On sixteenth October 2019 it was attended by Nitya Saxena and Chandrika Jajoo of IIS University. They performed in the Monologue Competition. Nitya Saxena secured third position with her amazing performance.

The event started at 4:00 o'clock. Nitya's story was about a child getting kidnapped and then losing his whole childhood to begging and thugs. The Monologue was called "The Lost Childhood". Chandrika Jajoo performed "My present is crying for my past". A beautiful story was moulded into a presentation by her. It was a story about how we are busy within our phones and its effect on our lives. The time limit was from 5 to 7 minutes for all the contestants.

Last but not the least, the event would not have been possible without the efforts and encouragement of the teachers and volunteers of IIS University and Amity University both. Special thanks to all the teachers, volunteers and the theatrical society for coming up with such unforgettable event.

Topics such as “mental illness” , “ fake news”, “ environment” were shown by other teams and many more. Our team performed the street play named “Kasturi Hiran” was performed. It was about how easily we blame others and forget to acknowledge things around us. The name explains the ironic story of the infamous Kasturi Hiran, who roams around to find the attractive smell which actually came from him. Same way, we humans roam around to seek pleasure and success whereas it remains within us. The performance started with an entry that takes places from every direction, even the audience. This made everyone curious and put everyone in complete awe.

The performances touched the hearts of the audience which was evident from the kind of applaud and cheers they gave. The audience definitely motivated the performance with their utmost support .

The event ended with inspiring words of the judges , who explained the importance and necessity of street plays. Not to forget, our team stood 3rd in the competition . Constant photographs were being taken while we were performing.

It was definitely a memorable event for each one of us. We will all cherish this moment afterwards.

Reality is necessary to be put forth in order to assess the importance of change. Street plays gives the perfect opportunity to people for the same. It is a direct way to Communicate with people in order to seek change. This could be done in an inter college cultural fest "Biochrome" where street play competition was organized by Dr B. Lal Institute , Jaipur on 21th January 2020. The event started at around 4 pm , it was held in the open ground with audience everywhere around.

Team of 15 students went for the same. There were many teams who performed including ours , The IIS University. The event started with motivating words of the anchor. The rules and regulations were spoken out for all the teams. Every important and crucial thing was made clear.

Topics such as violence against women were shown by other team and many more. Our tag no was 5th , the street play named "Kasturi Hiran" was performed. It was about how easily we blame others and forget to acknowledge things around us. The name explains the ironic story of the infamous Kasturi Hiran, who roams around to find the attractive smell which actually came from him. Same way, we humans roam around to seek pleasure and success whereas it remains within us. The performance started with an entry that takes places from every direction, even the audience. This made everyone curious and put everyone in complete awe.

All the performances touched the hearts of the audience which was evident from the kind of applaud and cheers they gave. The audience definitely motivated the performance with their utmost support .

The event ended with inspiring words of the judges , who explained the importance and necessity of street plays. Not to forget, our team stood 1st in the competition which could be

It was a great experience of being part of the JAIRANGAM Master Classes 2019. A very prestigious opportunity given by THE IIS UNIVERSITY to us, in which we had attended master classes conducted by the 5 masters of different arts and its relevance in theatre from 20th to 26th May, 2019.

On the 20th & 21th May the classes were conducted by Ranjit Kapoor Sir, who is a great theatre director and an alumna of NSD who has also taught at NSD. He taught us about a good script and the technique of writing a good play. He showed us a play directed by him in early 90's and a movie which is a satire on the Indian politics and politicians by which he taught about how can we convey our message in a creative and symbolic way in a creative manner.

On the 22nd May the class was conducted by Rajesh Singh Sir who is a theatre practitioner as well. He taught us about the origin of the theatre, covering whole history of theatre from the Greak theatre till the modern and contemporary theatre. He also touched upon theatre spaces, different forms of theatre from different places, exchange of cultures, and revolutions in the art form, and the Natya Shastra and its rules and importance.

On the 23rd May the class was conducted by Amit Kalla Sir who is a very talented and experienced painter and is an alumna of JNU. He taught us about the relevance of painting and sculptures in theatre, Indian architecture, proof of theatre practices in the Indian mythological books paintings in sculptures. He introduced us with the stage paintings and how creative and beautifully they were used in the theatre performances in early times.

On the 24th May the class was conducted by Sanjay Upadhyay sir, founder director of MP School of Drama. He is a leading theatre director, singer and music composer in Indian theatre. His musical plays have travelled all over the world. He taught us about the relevance of music in the theatre, types of the music and music instruments, important features of music instruments, his experiences till now with and in the world of music and how we can use it in the theatre production or in the life.

On 25th May the class was conducted by Souti Chakraborty Sir. He was associated with the "Grips" theatre in Kolkata for six years. He graduated from the NSD in 2001 with the specialization in design and direction. He worked with the NSD repertory company for 7 years as designer, director and actor. He taught us about the functions of the lights, color, mood and proper selection of the lights according to the season, climate and the sensitivity of the scenes in the play. He told us that lights decide our psychology and mental state. Increasing lights increases the energy. Lights create the perception of our life. The state of our mind changes with the change in the body posture. Quality of life refers to the light of a same time but in the different seasons and different atmospheres.

It was really my pleasure to attend the sessions of such great masters and have gained a lot of knowledge from them. I would like to thank JAIRANGAM 2019 and THE IIS UNIVERSITY to this amazing and precious opportunity.

भाषाएँ केवल अभिव्यक्ति का माध्यम नहीं, सांस्कृतिक गौरव की भी वाहक होती हैं। विभिन्न भाषाओं का ज्ञान हमारी अभिव्यक्ति को अधिक प्रभावशाली बनाता है। खासकर लोकभाषाओं के पास मुहावरों व लोकोक्तियों का असीम भण्डार है जो उनके कथन को सशक्त बनाता है। लोकभाषाओं की शब्द सामर्थ्य का अनुमान इससे ही लगाया जा सकता है कि राजस्थानी भाषा में ऊँट के लिए ही चार सौ से अधिक पर्यायवाची हैं, तो विक्रमी कलेण्डर के हर महीने में बरसने वाले बादलों के लिए एक अलग नाम है पर अत्यन्त खेद का विषय है कि दुनिया में इस समय प्रचलन में मौजूद करीब सात हजार भाषाओं में से आधी भाषाओं पर इस सदी के अंत तक लुप्त हो जाने का खतरा मंडरा रहा है। ऐसी स्थिति में हर संवेदनशील व्यक्ति का यह कर्तव्य है कि वह अपनी मातृभाषा को बचाने का दायित्व निर्वहन करे। यूनेस्को ने भी 21 फरवरी को अंतर्राष्ट्रीय मातृभाषा दिवस के लिए चुना।

अश्या कपूताँ सँ दुखी, सगलो देस समाज।

महाविद्यालय की छात्राओं में मातृभाषा के प्रति प्रेम जगाने व उन्हें जागरूक करने के उद्देश्य से 22 फरवरी 2020 को दी आई आई एस विश्वविद्यालय के हिंदी विभाग की ओर से मातृभाषा दिवस के उपलक्ष्य में अनेक गतिविधियों का आयोजन किया गया। इस अवसर पर छात्राओं के लिए— भारतीय मातृभाषाओं में वर्णमाला लेखन, स्लोगन एवं पोस्टर प्रतियोगिता तथा लघु वीडियो प्रतियोगिता का आयोजन किया गया जिसमें छात्राओं ने उत्साह से भाग लिया।

TECHNICAL SESSION II

The sub theme of the second Technical Session was “Improving International Rankings of Indian Universities through Internationalization”. The session was chaired by Prof. Sandeep Sancheti, Former President of AIU and Vice Chancellor, SRM Institute of Science and Technology, Kattankulathur, Tamil Nadu. The panelists of the session were Mr. Ritin Malhotra, Regional Director (South Asia) Times Higher Education and Prof. Kamlesh Mishra, Vice Chancellor, Rishihood University, Bahalgarh.

In his opening remarks, the chairperson enumerated various advantages and disadvantages of ranking. He further added that for an institute to be internationalized, they must be first nationalized across states and people. In his opinion, diversity is very important as it brings new adaptations and strategies.

ShriRitin Malhotra, discussed the framework of Times Higher Education (THE) ranking and certain parameters for internationalization of colleges. He stated that the reputation of an institution is mainly because of their alumni as it boasts the academic excellence of that institution. According to him, funding both from the government and alumni is a key factor to improve rankings. Indian universities, when ranked, receive only domestic votes and hence need to collaborate and communicate more for international recognition.

He suggested that the universities should focus on research collaborations, media engagement and branding in order to improve ranking at the national and global level.

Mr. Kamlesh Mishra began by pointing out the fact that internationalization of universities began in 1990s which led to an outflow of students to foreign countries like U.K., U.S.A., Germany & Russia for higher education. He stressed that for internationalization one must focus on increasing the funding and foreign collaborations. An active partnership with foreign universities is important along with funding.

The chair concluded the session by stating that a balance should be done by universities on the priorities and strengths not only for ranking but to elevate the standards of institutions on an average. He further discussed the importance of finance for governmental institutions and encouraged the stakeholders to have clear strategies in terms of money, resources, time required and the targets to be achieved to help improve ranking of the institute.

Following recommendations emerged from this session:

- Emphasis should be laid on research collaborations, academic reputation, citations and the universities should be proactive in communication, especially in research activities and research outputs.
- Public relations of the university should be strengthened and efforts should be made to work with media at local as well as global stage.

Major Recommendations

- Non-Resident Indians (NRI) quota and foreign students’ quota on supernumerary basis may be created in Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) to promote internationalization.

DEAN

- At present around 5.00 lakhs students go out from India to study in foreign HEIs. As compared to this only 54000 foreign students come to Indian HEIs. The inflow of foreign students to India needs to be maximized by building world class infrastructure, simplifying visa rules, easy entry and exit provisions, international hostels, curricular revision with international orientation, etc.
- Academic credit exchange should be systematized and seamlessly aligned internationally, so that a uniform standard of credit transfer can be developed. This would help to facilitate international student mobility both in terms of inflow and outflow of students.
- Research areas should be prioritized for international collaboration. The priority areas must be identified keeping in view the international trends of academic research.
- Developing World class infrastructure to provide amenable environment for enabling exchange of students, teachers, academic programmes, research projects and institutions is necessary for promoting internationalization of higher education.
- Conducive regulations to facilitate cross border movement of academic stakeholders in higher education are essential. The draft policy must clearly spell out measures for regulation on various aspects of Internationalization.
- Cultural sensitivity to support international stakeholders needs to be taken care of. Provision of Home Stays, involving International students in various cultural activities to familiarize them with the local or indigenous culture is desirable. Even the counseling bureaus of the universities must take the onus of organising workshops for cultural orientation of such students.

- Institutional arrangements to address concerns of out-bound and in-bound students are required. The policy must include some concrete modalities by making it compulsory for all universities having international students to have some mechanism in place to address the concerns of international students promptly.
- Balancing of indigenous and global knowledge systems need to be amicably aimed, in order to spearhead internationalization of higher education. For this purpose all new academic programs must have international orientation without losing sight of the indigenous values and the old programmes may be redesigned to accommodate both indigenous and international components.
- Indianisation of Higher Education should be the first step to internationalization. For this, regional barriers and state reservations must be removed.
- Policies should be developed to support Collaboration of institutions in order to comprehensively develop higher education as a universal public good.

SPORTS ACTIVITIES

“Champions do not become champions when they win the event, but in the hours, weeks, months and years they spend preparing for it. The victorious performance itself is merely the demonstration of their championship character.”

Gain a passion for sports, love the morning, love the environment, love playing and in no time you will love your life even more and enjoy it to your fullest. Our greatest weakness lies in giving up and the most certain way to succeed is always to try just one more time. Do not aspire to be the best on the team aspire to be the best for the team.

Success is not given. It is earned on the track, on the field, in the gym. With blood, sweat and the occasional tear.

The IIS (deemed to be University), Jaipur is a leading institute in women education, has not only provided its students quality education, but also a platform to prove themselves and carve a niche in this highly competitive world.

The Sports Board provides numerous facilities in a variety of sports like Shooting, Swimming, Cricket, Basketball, Badminton, Volleyball, Football, Archery, Taekwondo, Handball, Table-Tennis, Lawn Tennis and Athletics. It plays a major role in physical, mental, emotional, intellectual and social development of students and provides opportunities for them to prove their caliber in this field at different levels – State, National and International.

The University players have been participating in the West Zone / All India Inter University Tournaments/ Championship in various sports like Basketball, Taekwondo, Archery, Tennis, Shooting, Netball, Volleyball and badminton from 2013. 2014 onwards, the University has also started organizing Inter University Tournaments.

The sports board also organizes Inter-Class Competitions every year in the University, where enthusiastic students from all courses are given a fair chance to compete whole-heartedly in various games and sports activities.
