

"ABHINANDAN" : ORIENTATION TO THE UNIVERSITY FOR NEW STUDENTS

The new academic year of the IIS University began on July 6, 2018, with a round of orientations held on campus at the University Auditorium. Aably guided by the faculty of the University, the students were introduced to various aspects of their new Alma mater, via PPTs, a virtual tour and an awareness of the important Dos and Don'ts on Campus. This was followed by a tour of the University grounds, before the students took the University transport back home.

ENRICHMENT LECTURE

As part of academic activities, an Enrichment Lecture was organized on Approaches to Literary Studies: Postmodernism as Political and Ethical Practice, by the Department of English on 14 July 2018 at The IISU campus for students and scholars. The Resource Person was Prof. Anita Singh from Banaras Hindu University, Banaras, who spoke extensively on the conceptual background of the origin and purpose of literary theory and literary criticism.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

A faculty development programme was conducted in association with ISDC for the B.Com ACCA course of The IIS University from 16 July 2018 to 19 July 2018. It was a 4 day FDP held at 2 campuses; one was the IIS University, Jaipur and the other was Manipal University, Jaipur. The interactive and detailed sessions were very productive and added value to the skills and knowledge of the attendant faculty members of our University.

DEPARTMENT ORIENTATION-SESSIONS

Various Department Orientations have been held across the University for the students of individual faculties, thereby ensuring that students can understand what to expect from their specific programmes. The first year entrants were made aware of the academic and creative aspects of their respective departments and also had the examination related information made clear to them. Some of the many orientation sessions organised, were by:

1. English: 19, and 24 July 2018, for UG (Pass Course & Hons.) students
2. Journalism and Mass Communication: 19 July 2018
3. Geography: 18 July 2018
4. Education: 24 July 2018

BEC MEETING ON CAMPUS

A meeting with representatives of Cambridge English, New Delhi, regarding preparation for BEC (Business English Certificates) was held on campus on 5 July 2018. Several key points were discussed, with the University's BEC Co-ordinators, on the usefulness of BEC for students who are preparing for work.

REVISITING NATURAL ROOTS

The NSS unit of the IIS University took 200 volunteers for a tree plantation activity on 16 July 2018, to Bada Ram Dwara, Sanganer. Along with 6 faculty members, and with the support of members of Concerned Citizens of India, the students planted 101 saplings of shady trees. Mr. Abhishek Sharma, a leading member of the Concerned Citizens of India group, administered the oath to the volunteers of planting and caring for a tree.

GUEST LECTURE

The Department of English organised a Guest Lecture on 21 July 2018 on the topic Topological Shifts along Metaphorical Terrains: A Literary Approach by Professor Ashutosh Mohan, Dean, Department of English, Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, Delhi. Dr. Mohan's conversational interaction with the students and faculty members of the department, underlined his focus on the importance of a literary approach that could be directed at enjoying and identifying with the form of a text rather than breaking it down into its composite parts. It proved to be an informative session for the entire audience.
