O n 16th July 1995, an institution with a difference for girls was born in Jaipur. Christened as the 'International College for Girls' (ICG), the college became a Centre of Excellence within a short span of 18 years. ICG began to be considered as one of the esteemed and sought after institutions in the state providing excellent ambience, infrastructure and facilities to groom its students as world-ready women. With its focus on development of a scientific temper and positive attitude along with an emphasis on Indian culture and heritage, the ICG became an icon of quality education. The college got accredited A+ by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) of the University Grants Commission (UGC) in the year 2005.

In the year 2007, ICG got the recognition it deserved. The institution was granted an autonomous status by the University Grants Commission, reposing trust and confidence in the competence of the faculty, management and students. The conferment of a Model College status by the State Government and CPE (College with Potential for Excellence) by the UGC lent credibility and stature to the college. After a remarkable beginning, the ICG emerged as a world-class centre of higher education, research and training, dedicated to developing and disseminating knowledge to benefit the society and world community at large. Academic excellence together with an ethos of equality of opportunity, collaborative effort and challenging spirit brought laurels to the institution.

In 2009, The Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD, Government of India) declared ICG as a deemed to be University under Section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956 in the name and style of "The IIS University" (IISU). Apart from this being a remarkable achievement it was also a reaffirmation of faith in the quality of education, innovative ideas and research initiatives. The IIS University has always aimed at empowering women with the focus on three Es - Efficiency, Excellence and Effectiveness. The Review Committee constituted by the MHRD Government of India also recognised the competence and strength of The IIS University by placing it amongst the first 38 deemed to be universities under category A. Placement in the highest category accorded greater recognition and credence to the institution.
